

Fifth Grade Summer Reading List

Happy Summer! This summer your fifth grader will need to read Shiloh by Phyllis Reynolds Naylor and Number the Stars by Lois Lowry. They need to purchase each of these titles or check them out from the library. They must read both of these books before returning to school in the fall.

Shortly after school begins in the fall, students will be tested over the content of these stories (Shiloh and Number the Stars). They will be given a short test to make sure they read these two books completely and to see how well they comprehended what they read.
